

An Invitation to a Public Conference on
“Climate Change and Asia: Risks, Opportunities and Policies 2008”
May 15 2008

The SIIA is organizing a Public Conference on “Climate Change and Asia, Risks, Opportunities and Policies 2008.” This conference is a collaboration between the Singapore Institute of International Affairs and Civic Exchange (Hong Kong).

Globalization has allowed for economic growth amongst regional players in Asia, but has also intensely aggravated the environment. China, Japan, South Korea, India, Australia, New Zealand and the ASEAN countries will not be able to celebrate their success in a true sense unless their success accompanies workable solutions for the problem of climate change. The SIIA and Civic Exchange firmly believe that climate change issues should be placed in all nations’ agenda as individual awareness alone does not improve the immediate situation. Regional cooperation should be dealt jointly and actively and we would like to invite you to join us in this advocacy.

The conference aims to educate the public towards the risks, opportunities and cooperation on climate change in Asia, and possible strategies to tackle the issue of Climate Change.

- Date: Thursday, May 15 2008
